Weekly programme Kaunertal Mountain Guides

21.12.2026 - 04.04.2027, depending on snow conditions

Ice climbing can be booked on request!

MONDAY

09.30 Uhr Freeride Trial Day

Ski and snowboard off the groomed runs, and dive into the deep snow-covered slopes of the 3,000-metre peaks on the Kaunertal Glacier. During our freeride trial day, we'll show you where the most beautiful lines on the #wildsideofkaunertal are. Along the way, you'll learn more about proper behaviour in alpine terrain and how to use an avalanche transceiver. Solid skiing and snowboarding skills are required.

*Required equipment: Basic ski and snowboard gear, avalanche transceiver, shovel, probe.

Meeting point: 9:30 a.m., Ochsenalm valley station

Cost: €140.00 per person, equipment not included*

Minimum participants: 2 people

Payment: Cash payment on site

Registration deadline: by 4:00 p.m. the day before

WEDNESDAY

08.45 Uhr High-Alpine Snowshoe Hike

The allure of snowshoeing—an alpine nature experience. Feel the snow, breathe in the fresh mountain air, and discover the beauty of the winter landscape. Join us as we immerse ourselves in the silence of the mountains.

*Required equipment: snowshoes, snow poles.

Meeting point: 8:45 a.m., Quellalpin Kaunertal

Cost: €95.00 per person, equipment not included*

Minimum participants: 2 people

Payment: Cash payment on site

Registration deadline: by 4:00 p.m. the day before

THURSDAY

08.00 Uhr Beginner Ski Tour

Let's head out on our touring skis into the untracked terrain. Along the way, you'll learn more about proper behaviour in alpine terrain and how to use an avalanche transceiver. Our mountain guide will also share a few tips on ascending and descending off-piste. A comprehensive programme featuring up to two hours of ascent—doable even for those with limited fitness.

*Required equipment: touring skis, skins, avalanche transceiver, shovel, probe.

Treffpunkt: 8:00 a.m., Quellalpin Kaunertal
