Kaunertal Talmuseum (Valley Museum)

A JOURNEY THROUGH TIME

The collection details old ways of living and economics in the valley. The museum is located next to the Hotel Weisseespitze in Platz and is housed in the basement of the campsite administration building. A tour through the museum (8 rooms) gives you a brief insight into the history of the Kaunertal valley.

OPENING HOURS

- daily - register at the Hotel Weisseespitze

The Nature Park House

EXHIBITION: 3000 M VERTIKAL

Tyrol's first nature park house features the popular exhibition 3000 m VERTIKAL! Whether you prefer well-prepared cross-country ski trails or winter hiking trails, the beauty of the Piller Sattel ridge will inspire you! The exhibition invites visitors to enjoy an interactive hike from the rugged and imposing peaks of the Kaunergrat ridge to the warm and dry sunny slopes of the Inn valley. The film “Dream Journey into the Past” takes visitors back to the long-ago Bronze Age and Roman times and showcases the nature park during the changing of the seasons.

OPENING HOURS FOR THE EXHIBITION

- daily from 10 am to 5 pm Saturday via credit card machine.

Enormous strength: Kaunertal Climate Glacier

This permanent exhibition explores a variety of perspectives revolving around climate and glaciers. It provides insights into global climate research and presents the scientific findings of ongoing studies at the Gepatschferner glacier at the end of the Kaunertal valley. The first promising results for our future are presented along with a variety of ideas and the great effectiveness of local climate initiatives in the Kaunergrat region. The solidarity of people in the remote Kaunertal valley is also highlighted. The exhibition explores the topics of climate and glaciers by means of architecture, art and music. The construction of the power station in the 1960s is recounted and the people of Kaunertal are given voice.

OPENING HOURS

- daily from 1-6 pm
- Entry: Adults €5 / Children €2
- May to December: Closed Wednesdays
